WELL-PROTECTED ON RAINY DAYS

Are you also out and about with your children by bike or walking when it's raining? The Dryk Duo Raincover offers optimal protection – both in bike trailer mode and buggy mode.

RELIABLE PROTECTION THANKS TO OPTIMAL FIT

Thanks to the optimal fit and fixation with touch fastener, the raincover remains in place, keeping the inner cabin as well as your children dry at all times.

FAST AND INTUITIVE INSTALLATION

By putting the touch fastener in place under the Dryk Duo's handlebar, you can easily install the raincover. When the sun is out again, it can be opened and removed as easily.

DRYK DUO RAINCOVER

MATCHING RAINCOVER FOR THE DRYK DUO BIKE TRAILER

READY TO USE AT ANY TIME

Thanks to the flexible material, the raincover folds up easily and can be stowed away in the Dryk Duo. If it suddenly starts to rain during your trip, you will always have it at hand.

VENTILATION HOLES

FOR OPTIMAL AIR CIRCULATION

VENTILATION HOLES FOR OPTIMAL AIR CIRCULATION

When using the raincover, all three windows of the Dryk Duo are opened, allowing for the best possible air circulation through the ventilation holes and preventing the cover from steaming up.

FREE VIEW TO ALL SIDES

The transparent material allows your children a free view outside in their buggy or bike trailer, while you also have them in sight.

Dryk Duo Raincover - Matching raincover for the Dryk Duo bike trailer

Well-protected on rainy days

Optimal fit, easy handling and always at hand – the Dryk Duo Raincover is the optimal all-round protection when you are biking or walking with your children on rainy days. Be it in bike trailer mode or buggy mode, the rain protection keeps the inner cabin as well as your children dry at all times. Thanks to the touch fastener and optimal fit, the cover stays safely in place.

Intuitive handling, good ventilation, and free view

By putting the touch fastener in place under the Dryk Duo's handlebar, you can easily install the raincover. When the sun is out again, it can be opened and removed as easily. Thanks to the flexible material, the raincover folds up easily and can be stowed away in the Dryk Duo. If it suddenly starts to rain during your trip, you will always have it at hand. When using the raincover, all three windows of the Dryk Duo are opened, allowing for the best possible air circulation through the ventilation holes and preventing the cover from steaming up. The transparent material allows your children a free view outside in their buggy or bike trailer, while you also have them in sight.

Universal (weather) accessories for bike trailer and pushchair

Other than the raincover, there are other practical accessories available such as the Baby Lounger, the Bike Trailer Sunshade, or the Bike Trailer Hitch.
